By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

Gerald P. Nye, Radical Declined National Chairmanship of G.O.P.

WASHINGTON—Few people know it, but before the recent Republican National Committee offered its chairmanship to Henry Prather Fletcher, it sounded out that erudite young radical from North Dakota, Gerald P. Nye.

Much to the latter's surprise, he suddenly got a long distance telephone call from Chicago. So amazed was he that he thought it was a hoax, hung up the receiver, and called back to see that he was not being kidded.

Satisfied this, Nye listened while a prominent member of the Republican National Committee offered him its chairmanship.

Nye hesitated. "Let's see if we understand each other before I give you an answer," he said. "If I should take this job would I be at liberty to go into New Mexico and campaign for Bronson Cutting, who threw his weight to Roosevelt in the last campaign?"

"Or could I go into Wisconsin and work for Bob LaFollette? And would I be given an absolutely free hand to continue my investigation of the munitions industry?"

"Of course," it replied, "as chairman of the Republican National Committee we would expect you to respect its wishes on matters of policy."

"That's what I thought," replied Nye.

"You don't seem to want this job very badly," came the voice from Chicago.

"No, I don't," replied Nye, and hung up the phone receiver.

Friends

Reports of strained personal relations between Herbert Hoover and matty-attired Henry Fletcher, now National Republican Chairman, bring a hearty laugh from the latter.

Not only are the two men on the best of terms, but Fletcher credits the ex-President with saving him $160,000. It happened this way:

Four years ago Hoover asked Fletcher to accept the chairmanship of the Tariff Commission. After the latter had indicated his willingness to accept Hoover informed Fletcher that he would have to dispose of any stocks he owned.

"Some industry in which you hold stock may come before the Commission," Hoover said. "I am sure you will agree with me that to be on the safe side, it is best that you take no chances and sell all your stocks."

This was in 1930. The stock market had slumped, but, compared with later declines, was still prosperous.

Fletcher, believing, as did almost everyone else, that the market would bounce back, was reluctant to sell. But bowing to his chief's wishes, he disposed of all stocks.

Four months later he was exactly $160,000 richer. The market had crashed, to unheard of depths and stayed there. Henry Fletcher has ever since been grateful to Herbert Hoover.

Desert Diplomat

Probably no chairman of a Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the history of the United States has established the record attained by Key Pittman, lanky Senator from Nevada.

What there is in the desert wastes of that State which inspires erudition in the field of foreign affairs remains a mystery. But Key Pittman handles his Foreign Relations Committee as no previous Chairman.

Treaties and other affairs of state are clicked through his committee with clock-work precision. The treaty with Cuba ending the Platt Amendment was ratified in record time. And the other day Pittman reported out and secured ratification of 14 treaties all in the space of a few minutes.

Most of these treaties, incidentally, were written by Republican Presidents, had been gathering dust in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee — in some cases

Two to be Assigned to Walnut-st; Others to Fill Two Vacancies

CONTRACT DELAYED

Board Not to Use St. Joseph's Building

Four new teachers were employed for Circleville's grade schools by the city board of education at its meeting Tuesday evening.

Due to a technicality in the law governing schools, the board was unable to let the contract for the completion of the addition to the Walnut-st school building. R. G. Colville, clerk of the board, expects a communication from the state architect's office at Columbus, today, explaining the procedure to be followed.

The board also announced its intention to abandon the plan of using St. Joseph's parochial school building, W. Mount-st, for additional space for eighth grade and high school pupils, as a result of the overcrowded conditions in the high school building.

NOT YET ASSIGNED

The four new teachers, who will not be assigned to positions until sometime later and not offered contracts until fall, are Miss Helen Yates, 124 N. Scioto-st; Miss Rebecca Gordon, 432 E. Mount-st; Miss Helen Celler, Montclair-ave, and Miss Frances Metzger of Columbus, formerly of Circleville.

Two of the teachers will be assigned to grade positions in the Walnut-st school when the new addition is completed, and two will fill vacancies left by the resignations of Mrs. Avery Eichinger (Mildred Barthelmas), and Mrs. Peter Bernard (Grace Steele).

All are graduates of Circleville high school and have attended accredited colleges and universities to qualify for teaching positions. Miss Yates and Miss Celler are graduates of this year's classes at Ohio State university and Wooster College, respectively. Miss Metzger attended Capital university at Columbus and Miss Gordon is a graduate of Wilmington college, Wilmington.

IN SPECIAL MEETING

As soon as Mr. Colville receives word from the state architect's office, a meeting of the board of education will be held and the contract will be let for the completion of the improvement at the Walnut-st school.

As a result of the decision to abandon the plan to use St. Joseph's parochial school to house part of the overflow at the high school building, it is not known what further steps will be taken to take care of the overcrowded conditions there.

GOOD MAN SOUGHT FOR DOWDY'S JOB

Farm Bureau Meets Again Tonight; Many Efficient Men Are Unavailable.

Directors of the Pickaway-co farm bureau will meet again this evening to discuss the appointment of a county agriculture agent to succeed Guy Dowdy, who has resigned to accept a position with the Agriculture Adjustment Administration at Columbus.

The directors met Tuesday evening but were unable to decide on a choice. Most of the better qualified men are already working in corn and hog reduction programs in various parts of the state and it has been difficult to find a good man for the position, it was said.

BALES GRADUATES WITH HIGH HONORS

John Foster Bales, graduate of Circleville high school, received his "sheepskin" from Princeton university, Tuesday, with "high honors."

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales, attended the exercises. The youth gained extra distinction at the annual commencement for outstanding work in his major subject of psychology.

For the first time in many years the university was forced by rain to hold its exercises indoors. Instead of receiving his degree on the lawn during the morning, Bales and his classmates were presented to President Harold Willis Dodds in Alexander hall later in the day.

PEA PACK CLOSES AT ASHVILLE PLANT

The pea pack of the Crites Milling Co., Ashville, has been closed with about 18,000 cases put up.

The output was of a comparatively high grade.

Unless something unforeseen happens to the corn crop a large run is anticipated. The Crites Co. has about 1,100 acres around Ashville and 1,400 in the New Holland vicinity for its plant there.

Judge and Boy Kidnap

Judge Allegretti of the Criminal Court in Chicago is shown here with George Rogalski, 14-year-old boy, sentenced to serve 10 years for the kidnaping of Dorette Zietlow, the 2½-year-old girl who was lured to an abandoned warehouse and died there of cold and exposure. The judge had a talk with the young kidnaper before the trial opened Monday.

"PROBLEM BOY" TO SERVE TEN YEARS FOR ABDUCTING CHILD

State Declines To Press For Extreme Penalty For Young Rogalski.

Try To Keep Boy From Hardened Convicts.

CHICAGO, June 20.—George Rogalski, a smiling 14-year-old "problem child," must serve a ten year term in Joliet penitentiary for the tragic kidnaping and death of baby Dorette Zietlow, 2½ years old.

That was the verdict reached last night by a jury of family men in the criminal court of Judge Francis B. Allegretti after debating for an hour the problem of what punishment was best for the boy and society.

There was no question as to the guilt of George, one of the youngest defendants ever tried in criminal court. Without show of emotion he had admitted luring his baby victim to an abandoned ice-house and there unclothed her "to see what she looked like."

The defense had asked only for mercy, and the state, declining to ask the extreme penalty, recommended that the knicker-clad schoolboy be kept from society until he will have regained his moral equilibrium.

George was smiling when the verdict was read. The punishment was no more than he had expected.

SEWAGE PLANTS TO BE ERECTED

COLUMBUS, June 20.—With the awarding of one of the contracts on Columbus' $3,400,000 sewage disposal plant, work is expected to get underway in three weeks. The first contract, for aeration tanks and pipe galleries, went to a Detroit firm.

HICKSVILLE, June 20.—A new sewage disposal plant here was believed assured today after voters approved a $45,000 bond issue to finance the project at a special election.

The vote was 561 for the plant and 61 against the project.

Pastor's Daughter Is Put On Trial in Crime Series

DEDHAM, Mass., June 20.—A jury was completed today in record breaking time at the trial of Norma Millen.

There were 12 men in the jury box within 12 minutes of the time selection began.

DEDHAM, Mass., June 20.—Nineteen-year-old Norma Brighton Millen, slim, pretty, violet-eyed daughter of an ex-minister, goes on trial today on the charge of being an accessory after the murder of two policemen during a bank hold-up.

Her 24-year-old husband, Murton Millen, has been condemned to die in the electric chair for the killing of two policemen during a raid on the Needham Trust Company. Irving, his younger brother and Abe Faber, were convicted of

USE PETITIONS IN EFFORT TO STAY IN FERA

Unemployed, Others Circulating Papers; Seek 5,000 to Sign Them

TO PRESENT MONDAY

Leader Makes Statement Concerning Relief

Petitions were being circulated throughout the county today insisting that the county commissioners co-operate with the state relief commission so that the federal and state relief programs may continue in the county after July 1.

It has been announced that unless the commissioners properly adjust the finding made against them by R. B. Beverly, state examiner, and follow the rules and regulations of the FERA and state relief commission, all forms of aid will be withdrawn from the county on July 1.

It plans of leaders materialize, the petitions, bearing 5,000 signatures, representing all sections of the county, will be presented to the county commissioners at their meeting Monday.

MANY SIGNERS

A local citizen is heading the movement, and already has a large number of signers. They represent business men, manufacturers and the laboring class. Forty men throughout the county are circulating petitions, according to the leader.

In a statement today, the leader of the movement said:

"Hundreds of unemployed in the county feel that they will not be able to survive the winter, unless relief comes to them. There are no prospects for jobs and our only support must come from relief. We feel that the relief now coming from the federal and state governments is benefiting many unemployed workers. We are convinced that it must continue."

The county commissioners have definitely announced that they will not co-operate to the full extent with the state relief commission and FERA regulations. The chief point of controversy concerns the administration of county outside relief. The state insists that this relief should be handled through the office of the county relief director and that needy cases should be investigated by qualified case workers.

TO ADJUST FUND

The "dads" have already announced that they will properly adjust the finding made against them by R. B. Beverly, state examiner, showing that they illegally spent $16,000 worth of relief money. This money will be transferred to the proper fund, it has been announced.

According to a communication from Major E. O. Braught, executive director of the state relief commission, all state and federal relief aid will be withdrawn from the county on July 1, unless the commissioners transfer the illegally expended funds and continue to operate under FERA and state relief commission regulations.

How the commissioners will react to the petitions being circulated will not be known until Monday. According to the person in charge of the petitions, if the commissioners refuse to act, an appeal will be made to Governor George White.

CONSTABLES FINED

Three Franklin-co constables, who have become known to a number of Pickaway-countians as a result of their "speed-trap" operations on Route 23, were each fined $200 and costs by Judge John R. King in Columbus criminal court Tuesday for "injur-ing, defrauding, and oppressing under color of office."

In sentencing the trio, C. B. Moore, Morris Hanna and Erton Temple, Judge King said: "This ought to be a lesson to you gentlemen and other law enforcement officers that your badge is not a license to impose on law-abiding citizens."

MEMBER OF FORMER COUNTY FAMILY DIES

Mrs. Julia A. Adams, widow of W. R. Adams, died Tuesday at her residence, 956 Chittenden-ave, Columbus, at the age of 86.

She is survived by two sons, William and Claude; three daughters, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. Rebecca Ruff, and Miss Babe Adams.

The funeral will be Thursday at the home with burial in Walnut Hill cemetery.

The Adams family was prominent in Harrison-twp a number of years ago owning and operating the farm north of South Bloomfield now owned by John S. Ritt, this city.

SHERIFF CLEARS UP 5 ASHVILLE CRIMES

SMITH WAREHOUSE, ANOTHER OF CITY'S LANDMARKS RAZED

Another of Circleville's landmarks is passing into oblivion.

The large red-brick warehouse at Huston and Court-sts, which was built in the 1870's and used for years by Edward and J. P. Smith, Pick-away-co's "broom corn kings," for storage purposes, is being razed by the Kallston-Purina Co., which now owns the property.

It is planned to leave the first floor of the building intact, which with repairs, will be made an addition to the mill, formerly owned by H. M. Crites.

The building, more than 60 years old, housed millions of tons of broom corn during its use as a warehouse. Many of the older residents of the city were employed there at one time or another.

250 MASONS HONOR THRALL

Portrait Unveiled at Impressive Ceremony; Many Lodge Notables Attend.

More than 250 persons attended an impressive unveiling ceremony in honor of the late William B. Thrall, of Circleville, at the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Anne Bryan Cowan, of Columbus, great-granddaughter of Mr. Thrall, unveiled a large portrait and C. S. Plumb, also of Columbus, grand historian of the Ohio commandery, gave an excellent review of Mr. Thrall's Masonic activities.

Mrs. Leslie May, worthy matron of the Eastern Star, presented flowers to Mrs. Carrie Thrall Bryan, granddaughter of Mr. Thrall.

Another feature of the meeting was the presentation of an honorary membership in the Scioto commandery to J. M. Abernethy, of Columbus, past grand commander of Columbus, and F. E. Reynolds, also of Columbus, presented the grand commander's jewel to Mr. Abernethy who in turn presented it to Thurman I. Miller, the latter accepting it in behalf of the city's four Masonic groups.

Lamar S. Sternburger of Logan, grand illustrious commander of Ohio, was present and gave an address. J. Wallace Cherry, grand sword bearer of Columbus commandery, F. E. Reynolds and Mrs. Bryan, all of Columbus, and Dr. H. R. Clarke, this city, also responded with short talks.

C. C. Chappelle served as master of ceremonies, which was opened by a concert given by the Columbus commandery band. Mrs. J. D. Bragg, this city, also entertained with several accordion solos.

FAYETTE-CO GETS HUGE GAS REFUND

Between $20,000 and $25,000 To Be Distributed About July 1, Report.

WASHINGTON C. H., June 20.—A refund totalling between $20,000 and $25,000 will be paid back to natural gas consumers of Washington C. H. within two weeks by the Dayton Power & Light Co., according to announcement today by C. J. Gilman, district manager of the company.

The checks will be distributed about July 1, Gilman said. Washington C. H. is one of eight central Ohio communities sharing in a refund aggregating approximately $400,000.

Payment of the company is in compliance with the ruling of the United States Supreme court which sustained lower courts in holding the rates charged were excessive. Refunds have been made in several of the smaller towns.

Son of Former City School Head Is Dead

Funeral services were held in Columbus today for Charles M. Lewis, 75, retired newspaperman and son of M. H. Lewis, former superintendent of Circleville schools.

A former managing editor of The Columbus Dispatch, Mr. Lewis died last night following an illness of three years. Mr. Lewis was at one time connected with the New York World.

FDR GRANTED YALE HONORS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 20.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today was awarded the highest honor Yale university can bestow, that of the degree of Doctor of Laws, and was hailed a "brave leader in a time of peril" by James Rowland Angell, Yale president, at the 233rd commencement exercises in historic Woolsey hall.

Surrounded by high dignitaries of nation, state and university, the president was the last of twelve individuals to be honored with degrees today. Others including President James Bryant Conant of Harvard and Dr. Levi Rice, New York City health commissioner.

President Angell in presenting the degree said:

"Brave leader of your people in time of peril with indomitable courage and good cheer, with patience and good humor, you have brought high intelligence and complete devotion to the service of the nation, winning to your personal allegiance millions of men and every creed and party."

"Yale university, desiring to do homage to the great office you adorn and to mark her admiration and respect for your daring leadership, honors herself in conferring upon you her highest distinction, the degree of Doctor of Laws, admitting you to all its rights and privileges."

Court News

FILE AFFIDAVIT

A lunacy affidavit has been filed in probate court against C. L. Bosworth, Third-ave, this city.

He was to be given a hearing before Judge C. C. Young Wednesday afternoon.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

George R. Cloud, 29, Ashville, dry cleaner, and Vida Evelyn LeMay, 26, Ashville, teacher.

Virgil E. Penrod, 21, Chillicothe, and Maxine R. Miller, 21, 440 E. Franklin-st.

of Ashville and an ex-convict, has refused to talk. He has been named as the ring-leader by the other two men.

Jailed besides Clark are Jesse Friley, 24, of 1685 Aberdeen-ave, Columbus, and Carroll Louden, 28, of Bradford, Miami-co. Both have signed confessions according to Sheriff Radcliff.

"PROFITABLE" JOBS

The crimes committed by the gang of robbers include the abduction and robbery of Frank E. Morrison, Ashville grocery-keeper, his wife, and her sister, Miss Frances Gerhardt, early Sunday, May 12, while the three were enroute to Morrison's home after he had closed his store. Between $300 and $350 was stolen. Checks were also taken by the armed men; they were later burned. The three burglaries were the Morris Hardware Co., where $300 in merchandise was stolen, and the Grove and Rhodes store and the Stanley Beckett Electric shop. About $25 in cash was stolen from the Grove and Rhodes store while a radio, clock and some coins were taken from Beckett's. Theft of the automobile of Leon Taylor the night of the Morris hardware job was also confessed. Taylor's machine was used to haul some of the loot.

CLUES RUN DOWN

Sheriff Radcliff started on his "last round-up" in the robberies at 7 a. m. Tuesday. He had been working diligently since the Morrison abduction, when the three victims were forced to drive several miles into the rural sections around Ashville. Tips were run down and clues investigated with the result that Clark was arrested in Columbus 10 days ago and brought to the county jail. Questioned time after time he would not admit participating in the robberies although the sheriff was certain he had the information he wanted. Clark had lived with his brother-in-law, Walter Flowers, an employee of the Morrison store, until a short time before the robbery series began.

The man was booked for investigation here but was listed under a non-support charge in Columbus. He was returned to the Franklin-co jail during the past week-end for safe-keeping under the non-support count until a "break" could be obtained by Radcliff and his deputies.

A conclusive tip was run down by Radcliff from a source he doesn't care to expose, and early Tuesday found him on the way to Miami-co. He had learned one of the suspects had been married recently and was living with his parents-in-law. Radcliff traced Carroll Louden through the Miami-co marriage license bureau, and aided by Sheriff Charles Green, of Miami-co, placed him under arrest. Louden immediately confessed his part in the crimes.

FRILEY IN BED

More information led to the capture of Friley while he was sleeping early Wednesday. He also admitted his part. Confessions of both said Clark approached them and planned all the robberies.

Sheriff Radcliff returned to Columbus Wednesday and intimated before leaving that additional arrests of one and possibly two other persons would follow. He also planned to try to trace much of the stolen goods with the aid of Friley, who was left in Franklin-co.

HUBER GETS PRISON

LANCASTER, June 20.—John Huber, of near Buckeye Lake, was sentenced to two to 15 years in the Ohio penitentiary, Tuesday, by Judge Frank Action after being found guilty by a jury of attempting to poison his wife near Pickerton last August.

Huber was tried for putting lead arsenate in a spring located on a farm where his wife was visiting in an attempt to take her life.

PRISON TERM FOR BANKER

NEW YORK, June 20—Joseph W. Harriman, 67-year-old banker whose illustrious name brought in deposits to his now closed Harriman National bank, today awaited a possible sentence of 80 years and $80,000 fine while free in $25,000 bond. A federal grand jury yesterday found him guilty on 16 counts of banking malpractice.

Specifically, Harriman was charged that more than $1,000,000 of false entries be made, of misapplying $1,713,080 of the bank's funds and of lending $300,000 on improper securities.

The jury, which waded through five weeks of involved testimony, absolved Albert Murray Austin, vice-president of the bank, as being a mere tool of the financier.

Harriman's machinations were discovered when banking examiners audited the accounts of the bank following President Roosevelt's banking moratorium in 1933. His indictment quickly followed.

The banker attempted suicide and, in failing, pleaded insanity. Finally, after more than a year's delay, he finally faced trial during which, it was revealed, that among the accounts he had manipulated with false entries were those of Constance Talmadge and Peggy Hopkins Joyce.

Harriman will be sentenced a week from today. There is little likelihood he will be given the maximum sentence.

co jail. Loudon was brought here and Clark will be returned to the local jail Wednesday when the sheriff returns.

Clark, Loudon and a negro, who is being sought in Columbus, perpetrated the store robberies, the sheriff said, while Clark, Loudon and Friley did the Morrison stick-up.

Members of the Franklin-co sheriff's office gave him splendid cooperation. Radcliff declared, Billy Everett went with him to Miami-co Tuesday and O. B. Walker, who helped here during the Kidney murder investigation, was of much assistance in Columbus.

PROBLEM BOY

the boy said. To Judge Allegritti, who had made a close study of his case, the boy said:

"I appreciate your kindness. Thank you very much."

Even after the verdict was returned and sentence pronounced the seriousness of his crime apparently had not dawned on the youth. He remarked:

"I guess I'm being punished all right. I don't know why I did it. But I'll try to keep up in my studies. I hope they treat me down there like the judge treated me. I'll try to be a good boy."

George said he would take his school books to the penitentiary with him.

USED MORRIS GUN

The Morrison robbery, which is punishable by 10 to 20 years in prison, was done just as Morrison drove into his lane after closing his store. Men stepped to each side of the automobile with drawn revolvers, one of which Radcliff says was stolen in the Morrison hardware robbery. Morrison, his wife, and sister-in-law were ordered to back from the drive and "keep on going." The two men, Loudon and Friley, entered the back seat. Clark, Loudon and Friley claim, was in another automobile and trailed the party. The Morrison family was then forced from the automobile to return to Ashville the best way they could.

Sheriff Radcliff has spent many hours investigating the robberies. He has not been in bed since early Tuesday and was back in Columbus today on further investigation.

INSECTS HARASS DROUTH DISTRICT

CHICAGO, June 20.—Sweltering temperatures today were adding to the toll of crop destruction by drouth and insects pests in the central states although scattered showers visited some sections.

After another day of heat expected to reach the low 90's, the prospect was for more general rainfall tonight, according to the government weather bureau.

The 92 degree temperature reached here yesterday was expected to be surpassed today before the promised showers arrive.

Hordes of destructive chinch bugs and other insects were reported spreading in agricultural areas of the middle west due to the heat. At Bloomington, Ill., farmers were reported to be burning chinch bug-infested fields to prevent the insects from spreading.

The rainfall here since January 1 is now 10.08 inches deficient. Other areas report a corresponding shortage.

Light rain has fallen in the past 36 hours over parts of Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, lower Michigan, northwest North Dakota and Montana.

Try the woodpecker's methods on your driving. He uses his head. This is one of a series of short safety subjects released by Gov. White through O. W. Merrell, State Highway Director.

Baby's Body Found In Station Shortly After One of Woman

LONDON, June 20.—Still gasping from the shock of finding the torso of a murdered woman in a Brighton railway station, Great Britain was given a new thrill of horror today when the body of a slain baby was found in a trunk in the luggage room of the same station.

The baby's age, police said, was somewhere between four months and one year.

The finding of the woman's body and that of the baby were immediately linked together in the minds of the public and the police. Police announced after a preliminary investigation, however, that there was no connection between the two crimes.

POLICE AGAIN QUIZ BIGAMIST

Poderjay and Foreign Wife Engage Lawyers; Woman In Nervous Condition.

VIENNA, June 20.—Police again today quizzed Ivan Poderjay and Marguerite Suzanne Ferrand, seeking to obtain information regarding the disappearance of Miss Agnes C. Tufverson, woman lawyer of New York, who vanished sixteen days after her marriage to Poderjay.

Poderjay, according to records in a London registry office, married Mme. Ferrand there in March, 1933, and married Miss Tufverson in December 1933 in New York. He is held on a charge of bigamy.

Mme. Ferrand, who was wearing clothing said to have been part of Miss Tufverson's trousseau, is detained for questioning. A blood-stained trunk belonging to Miss Tufverson was found in the attic of the house where Poderjay and Mme. Ferrand lived here.

As was the case yesterday, when she became hysterical while being questioned, Mme. Ferrand was highly excited at today's inquiry. Poderjay was calm. The inquiry was in private and police did not reveal the nature of the answers to their questions.

Poderjay, often portrayed as a dapper Don Juan who wrecked many feminine hearts in many lands, was ungroomed and unshaven as he faced the police inquisitor. His erstwhile natty suit was wrinkled and unpressed. He was collarless and his shoes were unlaced.

Both Poderjay and Mme. Ferrand engaged lawyers to defend them.

Mrs. Lucille Aernan and children visited Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Edwards Sunday. They are staying at the home of her father, Dr. Fitzgerald while the Dr. and his wife are on a trip to Montana.

Gerald P. Nye, Radical Declined National Chairmanship of G.O.P.

WASHINGTON—Few people know it, but before the recent Republican National Committee offered its chairmanship to Henry Prather Fletcher, it sounded out that erudite young radical from North Dakota, Gerald P. Nye.

Much to the latter's surprise, he suddenly got a long distance telephone call from Chicago. So amazed was he that he thought it was a hoax, hung up the receiver, and called back to see that he was not being kidded.

Satisfied of this, Nye listened while a prominent member of the Republican National Committee offered him its chairmanship.

Nye hesitated. "Let's see if we understand each other before I give you an answer," he said. "If I should take this job would I be at liberty to go into New Mexico and campaign for Bronson Cutting, who threw his weight to Roosevelt in the last campaign?"

"Of course," he replied, "as chairman of the Republican National Committee I would expect you to respect its wishes on matters of policy."

"That's what I thought," replied Nye. "You don't seem to want this job very badly," came the voice from Chicago.

"No, I don't," replied Nye, and hung up the phone receiver.

Friends
Reports of strained personal relations between Herbert Hoover and anti-attorney Henry Fletcher, new National Republican Chairman, bring a hearty laugh from the latter.

Not only are the two men on the best of terms, but Fletcher credits the ex-President with saving him $100,000. It happened this way.

Four years ago Hoover asked Fletcher to accept the chairmanship of the Tariff Commission. After the latter had indicated his willingness to accept Hoover informed Fletcher that he would have to dispose of any stocks he owned.

"Some industry in which you hold stock may come before the Commission," Hoover said. "I am sure you will agree with me that to be on the safe side, it is best that you take no chances and sell all your stocks."

This was in 1930. The stock market had slumped, but, compared with later declines, was still prosperous.

Fletcher, believing, as did almost everyone else, that the market would bounce back, was reluctant to sell. But bowing to his chief's wishes, he disposed of all stocks.

Four months later he was exactly $160,000 richer. The market had crashed, to unheard of depths and stayed there. Henry Fletcher has ever since been grateful to Herbert Hoover.

Desert Diplomat
Probably no chairman of a Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the history of the United States has established the record attained by Key Pittman, lanky Senator from Nevada.

What there is in the desert wastes of that State which inspires erudition in the field of foreign affairs remains a mystery. But Key Pittman handles his Foreign Relations Committee as no previous Chairman.

Treaties and other affairs of state are clicked through his committee with clock-work precision. The treaty with Cuba ending the Platt Amendment was ratified in record time. And the other day Pittman reported out and secured ratification of 14 treaties all in the space of a few minutes.

Most of these treaties, incidentally, were written by Republican Presidents, had been gathering dust in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee—in some cases

Two to be Assigned to Walnut-st; Others to Fill Two Vacancies

CONTRACT DELAYED

Board Not to Use St. Joseph's Building

Four new teachers were employed for Circleville's grade schools by the city board of education at its meeting Tuesday evening.

Due to a technicality in the law governing schools, the board was unable to let the contract for the completion of the addition to the Walnut-st school building, R. C. Colville, clerk of the board, expects a communication from the state architect's office at Columbus, today, explaining the procedure to be followed.

The board also announced its intention to abandon the plan of using St. Joseph's parochial school building, W. Mount-st, for additional space for eighth grade and high school pupils, as a result of the overcrowded conditions in the high school building.

NOT YET ASSIGNED

The four new teachers, who will not be assigned to positions until sometime later and not offered contracts until fall, are Miss Helen Yates, 124 N. Scioto-st.; Miss Rebecca Gordon, 432 E. Mount-st.; Miss Helen Celler, Mountclair-ave, and Miss Frances Metzger of Columbus, formerly of Circleville.

Two of the teachers will be assigned to grade positions in the Walnut-st school when the new addition is completed, and two will fill vacancies left by the resignations of Mrs. Avery Eichinger (Mildred Barthelma), and Mrs. Peter Bernard (Grace Steele).

All are graduates of Circleville high school and have attended accredited colleges and universities to qualify for teaching positions. Miss Yates and Miss Celler are graduates of this year's classes at Ohio State university and Wooster College, respectively. Miss Metzger attended Capital university at Columbus and Miss Gordon is a graduate of Wilmington college, Wilmington.

IN SPECIAL MEETING

As soon as Mr. Colville receives word from the state architect's office, a meeting of the board of education will be held and the contract will be let for the completion of the improvement at the Walnut-st school.

As a result of the decision to abandon the plan to use St. Joseph's parochial school to house part of the overflow at the high school building, it is not known what further steps will be taken to take care of the overcrowded conditions there.

GOOD MAN SOUGHT FOR DOWDY'S JOB

Farm Bureau Meets Again Tonight; Many Efficient Men Are Unavailable.

Directors of the Pickaway-co farm bureau will meet again this evening to discuss the appointment of a county agriculture agent to succeed Guy Dowdy, who has resigned to accept a position with the Agriculture Adjustment Administration at Columbus.

The directors met Tuesday evening but were unable to decide on a choice. Most of the better qualified men are already working in corn and hog reduction programs in various parts of the state and it has been difficult to find a good man for the position, it was said.

BALES GRADUATES WITH HIGH HONORS

John Foster Bales, graduate of Circleville high school, received his "sheepskin" from Princeton university, Tuesday, with "high honors."

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bales, attended the exercises. The youth gained extra distinction at the annual commencement for outstanding work in his major subject of psychology.

For the first time in many years the university was forced by rain to hold its exercises indoors. Instead of receiving his degree on the lawn during the morning, Bales and his classmates were presented to President Harold Willis Dodds in Alexander hall later in the day.

PEA PACK CLOSES AT ASHVILLE PLANT

The pea pack of the Crites Milling Co., Ashville, has been closed with about 18,000 cases put up.

The output was of a comparatively high grade. Unless something unforeseen happens to the corn crop a large run is anticipated. The Crites Co. has about 1,100 acres around Ashville and 1,400 in the New Holland vicinity for its plant there.

Judge and Boy Kidnaper

Judge Allegritti of the Criminal Court in Chicago is shown here with George Rogalski, 14-year-old boy, sentenced to serve 10 years for the kidnaping of Dorette Zietlow, the 2½-year-old girl who was lured to an abandoned warehouse and died there of cold and exposure. The judge had a talk with the young kidnaper before the trial opened Monday.

"PROBLEM BOY" TO SERVE TEN YEARS FOR ABDUCTING CHILD

State Declines To Press For Extreme Penalty For Young Rogalski.

PLEASED WITH TERM

Try To Keep Boy From Hardened Convicts.

CHICAGO, June 20.—George Rogalski, a smiling 14-year-old "problem child," must serve a ten year term in Joliet penitentiary for the tragic kidnaping and death of baby Dorette Zietlow, 2½-year-old.

That was the verdict reached last night by a jury of family men in the criminal court of Judge Francis E. Allegritti after debating for an hour the problem of what punishment was best for the boy and society.

There was no question as to the guilt of George, one of the youngest defendants ever tried in criminal court. Without show of emotion he had admitted luring his baby victim to an abandoned ice-house and there unclothed her "to see what she looked like."

DECLINE EXTREME PENALTY
The defense had asked only for mercy, and the state, declining to ask the extreme penalty, recommended that the knicker-clad schoolboy be kept from society until he will have regained his moral equilibrium.

George was smiling when the verdict was read. The punishment was no more than he had expected.

MANY SIGNERS

A local citizen is heading the movement, and already has a large number of signers. They represent business men, manufacturers and the laboring class. Forty men throughout the county are circulating petitions, according to the leader.

In a statement today, the leader of the movement said:

"Hundreds of unemployed in the county feel that they will not be able to survive the winter, unless relief comes to them. There are no prospects for jobs and our only support must come from relief. We feel that the relief now coming from the federal and state governments is benefiting many unemployed workers. We are convinced that it must continue."

The county commissioners have definitely announced that they will not agree to the full extent with the state relief commission and FERA regulations. The chief point of controversy concerns the administration of county outside relief. The state insists that this relief should be handled through the office of the county relief director and that needy cases should be investigated by qualified case workers.

The commissioners are fully as insistent that this aid should be administered by them and the cases should be investigated by township trustees.

TO ADJUST FUND

The "dads" have already announced that they will properly adjust the fund made against them by R. B. Everly, state ex-superior, showing that they illegally spent $16,000 worth of relief money. This money will be transferred to the proper fund, it has been announced.

According to a communication from Major E. O. Braught, executive director of the state relief commission, all state and federal relief aid will be withdrawn from the county on July 1, unless the commissioners transfer the illegally expended funds and continue to operate under FERA and state relief commission regulations.

How the commissioners will react to the petitions being circulated will not be known until Monday. According to the person in charge of the petitions, if the commissioners refuse to act, an appeal will be made to Governor George White.

CONSTABLES FINED

Three Franklin-co constables, who have become known to a number of Pickaway-countians as "the three speed-trap" operators on Route 23, were each fined $200 and costs by Judge John R. King in Columbus criminal court Tuesday for "injuriously, fraudulently and oppressively under color of office."

In sentencing the trio, C. B. Moore, Morris Hanna and Erton Temple, Judge King said:

"This ought to be a lesson to you gentlemen and other law enforcement officers that your badge is not a license to impose on law-abiding citizens."

SHERIFF CLEARS UP 5 ASHVILLE CRIMES

SMITH WAREHOUSE, ANOTHER OF CITY'S LANDMARKS RAZED

Another of Circleville's landmarks is passing into oblivion.

The large red-brick warehouse at Huston and Courts, which was built in the 1870's and used for years by Edward and J. P. Smith, Pickaway-co's "broom corn kings," for storage purposes, is being razed by the Kaiston-Furnia Co., which now owns the property.

It is planned to leave the first floor of the building intact, which with repairs, will be made an addition to the mill, formerly owned by H. M. Crites.

The building, more than 60 years old, housed millions of tons of broom corn during its use as a warehouse. Many of the older residents of the city were employed there at one time or another.

250 MASONS HONOR THRALL

Portrait Unveiled at Impressive Ceremony; Many Lodge Notables Attend.

More than 250 persons attended an impressive unveiling ceremony in honor of the late William B. Thrall, of Circleville, at the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Anne Bryan Cowan, of Columbus, great-granddaughter of Mr. Thrall, unveiled a large portrait and C. S. Plumb, also of Columbus, grand historian of the Ohio commandery, gave an excellent review of Mr. Thrall's Masonic activities.

Mrs. Leslie May, worthy matron of the Eastern Star, presented flowers to Mrs. Carrie Thrall Bryan, granddaughter of Mr. Thrall.

Another feature of the meeting was the presentation of an honorary membership in the Soloto commandery to J. M. Abernethy, of Columbus, past grand commander. F. E. Reynolds, also of Columbus, presented the grand commander's jewel to Mr. Abernethy who in turn presented it to Thurman I. Miller, the latter accepting it in behalf of the city's four Masonic groups.

Lamar S. Sternburger of Logan, grand illustrious commander of Ohio, was present and gave an address. J. Wallace Cherry, grand sword bearer of Columbus commandery, F. E. Reynolds and Mrs. Bryant, all of Columbus, and Dr. H. R. Clarke, this city, also responded with short talks.

C. C. Chappellear served as master of ceremonies, which was opened by a concert given by the Columbus commandery band. Mrs. J. D. Bragg, this city, also entertained with several accordion solos.

The checks will be distributed about July 1, Gilman said. Washington C. H. is one of eight central Ohio communities sharing in a refund aggregating approximately $400,000.

Payment of the company is in compliance with the ruling of the United States Supreme court which sustained lower courts in holding the rates charged were excessive. Refunds have been made in several of the smaller towns.

FDR GRANTED YALE HONORS

Highest Degree University Possesses Presented; School Head Praises Man.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 20.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today was awarded the highest honor Yale university can bestow, that of the degree of Doctor of Laws, and was hailed a "brave leader in a time of peril" by James Rowland Angell, Yale president, at the 233rd commencement exercises in historic Woolsey hall.

Surrounded by high dignitaries of nation, State and university, the president was the last of twelve individuals to be honored with degrees today. Others including President James Bryant Conant of Harvard and Dr. Levi Rice, New York City health commissioner.

President Angell in presenting the degree said:

"Brave leader of your people in time of peril with indomitable courage and good cheer, with patience and good humor, you have brought high intelligence and complete devotion to the service of the nation, winning to your personal allegiance millions of men and every cred and party."

"Yale university, desiring to do homage to the great office you adorn and to mark her admiration and respect for your leadership, honors herself in conferring upon you her highest distinction, the degree of Doctor of Laws, admitting you to all its rights and privileges."

HUBER GETS PRISON

LANCASTER, June 20.—John Huber, of near Buckeye Lake, was sentenced to two to 15 years in the Ohio penitentiary, Tuesday, by Judge Frank Action after being found guilty by a jury of attempting to poison his wife near Piquette last August.

of Ashville and an ex-convict, has refused to talk. He has been named as the ring-leader by the other two men.

Jailed besides Clark are Jesse Friley, 24, of 1685 Aberdeen-ave, Columbus, and Carroll Loudon, 28, of Bradford, Miami-co. Both have signed confessions according to Sheriff Radcliff.

'PROFITABLE' JOBS

The crimes committed by the gang of robbers include the abduction and robbery of Frank B. Morrison, Ashville grocery-keeper, his wife, and her sister, Miss Frances Gerhardt, early Sunday, May 13, while the three were enroute to Morrison's home after he had closed his store. Between $300 and $350 was stolen. Checks were also taken by the armed men; they were later burned. The three burglaries were the Morris Hardware Co., where $300 in groceries was stolen, and the Green-Rhodes store and the Blaney Beckett Electric shop. About $100 in cash was stolen from the Green and Rhodes store while a radio clock and some coins were taken from Beckett's. Theft of the automobile of Leon Taylor the night of the Morris hardware job was also confessed. Taylor's machine was used to haul some of the loot.

CLUES RUN DOWN

Sheriff Radcliff started on the "last round-up" in the robbery case 7 a. m. Tuesday. He had been working diligently since the first abduction, when the three victims were forced to drive several miles into the rural sections around Ashville. Tips were run down and clues investigated with the result that Clark was caught in Columbus 10 days ago and brought to the county jail. Questioned time after time he would not admit participating in the robberies although the sheriff was certain he had the information he wanted. Clark had lived with his brother-in-law, Walter Flowers, an employee of the Morrison store, until a short time before the robbery series began.

"The man was booked for investigation here but was listed as a non-support charge in Columbus. He was returned to the Franklin-co jail during the past week-end for safe-keeping under the non-support count until a 'break' could be obtained by Radcliff and his deputies.

A conclusive tip was run down by Radcliff from a source he doesn't care to expose and early Tuesday found him on the way to Miami-co. He had learned one of the suspects had been married recently and was living with his parents-in-law. Radcliff traced Carroll Loudon through the Miami-co marriage license bureau, and aided by Sheriff Charles Green, of Miami-co, placed him under arrest. Loudon immediately confessed his part in the crimes.

FRILEY IN BED

More information led to the capture of Friley while he was sleeping early Wednesday. He also admitted his part. Confessions of both say Clark approached them and planned all the robberies.

Sheriff Radcliff returned to Columbus Wednesday and intimated before leaving that additional arrests of one and possibly two other persons would follow. He also planned to try to trace much of the stolen goods with the aid of Friley, who was left in Franklin-co.

MECCA OF A. WINS FIRST HALF TITLE, 4-3

Mecca Errors Play Big Part

Container Corporation recall team won the chamof the first half of the ace, Tuesday evening, dethe Mecca restaurant to 3, in 11 innings of ing baseball.

Both teams scored one in the and twice in the second and that time until the straw-batted in the eleventh both went scoreless. True, had scoring chances and thought they had runners
the plate but umpire Joe ch, who calls them all just as sees them, ruled against both sides.

The straw-board's big protest the ruling at the plate came in tenth inning when Strawser to score as Kline kicked runner's grounder. The alert baseman whipped the ball to Gordon in time to win the game.

KLINE CALLED OUT
The Mecca complained long and in the next inning when Kline was called out by umpire. He had forced Radcliff to get on base and to score on Mettler's hit. He called out with Trimmer
the play at the plate.

Neither first inning run was scored. Watson hit the first ball for a clean single to center field. He advanced to second on Mettler's hit. Trimmer grounded get through him.
The Mecca run was scored by who had walked. Hickey to start the inning and Radcliff popped to Trimmer.
also walked and Kline to fill the bases. Mettler's under to G. Brungs forced at the plate but the run-apparently was unaware he line. Davis had gone to third on a throw toward the

BOTH SCORE AGAIN

third were aided by Davis

About This And That
BY THE
SECOND GUESSEER
WITH THE FIRST HALF
tucked away by the straw-board's attention of league game turns to the second evening. Managers are instructed to meet at The Herald office Thursday immediately after the Eshelman-Purina ball game.
drawings will be made for pos-sion in the schedule just as was for the first half.

All managers who have not turned in their unsold tickets and their money for those sold must make their report at this meeting. * * * A final accounting is expected to be made with George Hamel, league secretary, to attend the session.

MANY BALL PLAYERS, MEMbers of the various teams, are certain the second half of the league will be the hardest fought in city operation ball history. Practically every team's lineup is now set. All are quite a lot stronger than at the start of the season, and every outfit has served warn-double. Gordon's base on balls after two were out, and Pinky Wilson's double driving the runners over.

In the next seven innings the game was nip and tuck with both Bill Hegele and Ray Brungs pitching their hearts out hoping for their mates to cross the plate.
Neither could. Starting with the fourth and through the tenth inning Hegele gave only two hits.
Strawser and Stevens getting them. Only six men reached the bases in those innings four of them on errors. On the other side the Mecca did a good amount of threatening but when the final blow was needed Ray Brungs put on the brakes and the threat ended. The Mecca counted eight hits in the next seven innings and was benefited by two errors and a walk but the runs would not come.
Then came the straw board half of the eleventh.

WATSON DOES IT
Hegele pitched three beautiful strikes to R. Brungs for the first out. Things looked bright when Watson popped a high fly just back of second; Mettler was under it and had both hands on the leather but it fell to the ground safely, for the break that broke up the ball game and carried away the first half championship.
Trimmer promptly singled Watson to third base. He took second on the next pitch. George Brungs shot a fly into left center field and Wilson made a nice play on the ball but had no chance to get the fleet Watson at the plate.

That proved to be the winning marker for E. Radcliff popped to Whaley, Davis fled to Brannon and Kline was out Stevens to Trimmer to end the game.

It was a real battle from start to finish. The crowd remained back off the field, the umpires handled their positions well although the Mecca will continue to claim that Kline was not touched at the plate, the players, all of them were nervous, handled themselves well and the first round was climaxed in a splendid manner with two strong teams playing for the title.

HEGELE HAD EDGE
Hegele as far as statistics are concerned had quite an edge on his opponent, Ray Brungs, who was hurling a despoite a bruised hand. The Mecca pitcher gave but seven hits, none of which were for extra bases. He fanned two—so did Brungs—but he walked only two while Brungs franked six to the initial sack.

The work of the two third basemen, George Brungs and Jaggy Davis, was splendid. The former with Stevens pulled the CCA from hot water several times. Davis is charged with three errors but many of the chances he had were plenty difficult.

Tonight's game is between the Given Oils and Circle City Dairies while the Eshelman Feeds and Purina Chows close the first half Thursday evening.

MILLER BEATEN ON FOUL PUNCH
LOS ANGELES, June 20.—
Fouled in the second round of their scheduled 10 round bout, Tommy Paul, former featherweight champion won from Freddie Miller, Cincinnati present NBA title holder, here last night.

Miller's title was not at stake
as both were overweight.
Paul suffered a dislocated hip as he turned suddenly away from an unintentional low blow.
Dr. Lloyd Mace after an examination held that Paul had not been fouled, and that Miller should be declared winner on a technical knockout, but he was overruled by Referee Jackie Fields.

Paul was taken to receiving hospital for emergency treatment.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN
The Favor of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Your bowels get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of the poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the old and in for new bile and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Sometimes won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts the free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only the mild vegetable extract. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.

McKAIN FANS 18 BATTERS

Claims Tie For League Record; Gives Only One Hit; Red Birds Are Victors.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 20.—Archie McKain, chunky Louisville southpaw, today had equaled the all-time American Association strikeout record.

While the Colonels defeated St. Paul 3 to 0, McKain fanned 18 St. Paul batters and allowed only one hit. The record was established back in 1915 by Dave Danforth, who was playing with Louisville at the time.

COLUMBUS, June 20.—Kansas City today was to attempt to avenge the defeat they suffered last night at the hands of the Columbus Red Birds who went on a batting spree to chalk up a 7 to 1 victory over the visitors. The game marked the inaugural of the current home stay of the Birds.

TOLEDO, June 20.—Milwaukee's baseball club, which nosed out Toledo for a 2 to 1 win yesterday, was to try to make it two in a row today.

Coin Decides Election
MANVILLE, Wyo.—Mayor E. B. Baughn and City Councilman F. W. Kettler hold office because of the turn of a coin. Baughn was tied with A. Manorgan and Kettler with G. O. Glee at the recent election. The deadlock was broken by the flip of a "two-bit" piece.

Ashville News

M. E. CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES
At the annual Children's Day exercises in the Ashville M. E. church Sunday evening, June 17, an interesting and instructive program of music, recitations and dialogues was rendered by the little folks which was listened to with respectful attention by the large crowd in attendance.

An introductory piano selection by Helen Spindler and Jane Alexander opened the exercises, followed by music by the adult choir under the leadership of Ira M. Scotchorn, with Mrs. Carrie Hedges at the piano.

The welcoming address by a Peggy Weber was followed by a solo by Norma Jean Hines with chorus by band of small girls, and both were well rendered. Helen Spindler was the accompanist for the little ones.

Recitations and songs by the children followed, and then Ruth Baker rendered a beautiful solo, after which a dialogue by Clara Louise Rogers and Helen McCord depicting the objects of children's day was well portrayed.

Some more appropriate recitations and songs by the primary class. A solo by Marilyn Hedges with chorus by group of girls was well rendered.

As is well known collections taken in these occasions go into a loan fund from which deserving young people may secure help to educate themselves. Billy Wharton in his winning style, brought the subject of offering to the audience and his efforts were rewarded by a very liberal contribution.

Credit is due the teachers in charge, Mrs. Alice Spindler, ably assisted by Mrs. Clara Rihl, Mrs. Cleo Hines and Mrs. Clara Swoyer, as their task was not an easy one, but the children came through with flying colors and received the well earned plaudits of all present.

The floral decorations were profuse and artistically arranged. Rev. C. W. Hoffman closed the children's program with a few words of deserved praise for all who had a part in the services.

As an added attraction, a pageant by 20 young ladies directed by Mrs. Lillian Hosler, with the assistance of Mrs. Rose Hedges as "Understanding," and Mrs. Laura Courtright as "The Average Christian," portrayed a great lesson.

In brief, it is our misunderstanding of the problems confronting our young folks which lead many of us to the conclusion that they are falling short of an established standard. Just throw the same safeguards around them that enabled you to steer clear of the innumerable pitfalls strewn all along life's journey and the youth problem will in most cases solve itself.

Rev. T. M. Ricketts pronounced the benediction.

PRISON TERM FOR BANKER

NEW YORK, June 20.—Joseph W. Harriman, 67-year-old banker whose illustrious name brought in deposits to his now closed Harriman National bank, today awaited a possible sentence of 80 years and $80,000 fine while free in $25,000 bond. A federal grand jury yesterday found him guilty on 16 counts of banking malpractice.

Specifically, Harriman was charged that more than $1,000,000 of false entries be made, of misapplying $1,713,080 of the bank's funds and of lending $300,000 on improper securities.

The jury, which waded through five weeks of involved testimony, absolved Albert Murray Austin, vice-president of the bank, as being a mere tool of the financier.

Harriman's machinations were discovered when banking examiners audited the accounts of the bank following President Roosevelt's banking moratorium in 1933. His indictment quickly followed.

The banker attempted suicide and, in failing, pleaded insanity. Finally, after more than a year's delay, he finally faced trial during which, it was revealed, that among the accounts he had manipulated with false entries were those of Constance Talmadge and Peggy Hopkins Joyce.

SHERIFF

co jail. Loudon was brought here and Clark will be returned to the local jail Wednesday when the sheriff returns.

Clark, Loudon and a negro, who is being sought in Columbus, perpetrated the store robberies, the sheriff said, while Clark, Loudon and Friley did the Morrison stick-up.

Members of the Franklin-county sheriff's office gave him splendid cooperation. Radcliff declared, Billy Everett went with him to Miami-co Tuesday and O. B. Walker, who helped here during the Kidney murder investigation, was of much assistance in Columbus.

USED MORRIS GUN

The Morrison robbery, which is punishable by 10 to 20 years in prison, was done just as Morrison drove into his lane after closing his store. Men stepped to each side of the automobile with drawn revolvers, one of which Radcliff says was stolen in the Morrison hardware robbery. Morrison, his wife, and sister-in-law were ordered to back from the drive and "keep on going." The two men, Loudon and Morley, entered the back seat. Clark, Loudon and Friley claim, was in another automobile and trailed the party. The Morrison family was then forced from the automobile to return to Ashville the best way they could. Sheriff Radcliff has spent many hours investigating the robberies. He has not been in bed since early Tuesday and was back in Columbus today on further investigation.

INSECTS HARASS DROUTH DISTRICT

CHICAGO, June 20.—Sweltering temperatures today were adding to the toll of crop destruction by drouth and insects pests in the central states although scattered showers visited some sections.

After another day of heat expected to reach the low 90's, the prospect was for more general rainfall tonight, according to the government weather bureau.

The 92 degree temperature reached here yesterday was expected to be surpassed today before the promised showers arrive.

Hordes of destructive chinch bugs and other insects were reported spreading in agricultural areas of the middle west due to the heat. At Bloomington, Ill., farmers were reported to be burning chinch bug-infested fields to prevent the insects from spreading.

The rainfall here since January 1 is now 10.08 inches deficient. Other areas report a corresponding shortage.

Light rain has fallen in the past 36 hours over parts of Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, lower Michigan, northwest North Dakota and Montana.

Try the woodpecker's methods on your driving. He uses his head. This is one of a series of short safety subjects released by Gov. White through O. W. Merrill, State Highway Director.

the boy said. To Judge Allegritti, who had made a close study of his case, the boy said:

"I appreciate your kindness. Thank you very much."

Even after the verdict was returned and sentence pronounced the seriousness of his crime apparently had not dawned on the youth. He remarked: "I guess I'm being punished all right. I don't know why I did it. But I'll try to keep up in my studies. I hope they treat me down there like the judge treated me. I'll try to be a good boy."

George said he would take his school books to the penitentiary with him.

TO SEPARATE YOUTH

To see that the youth is not thrown with hardened criminals Judge Allegritti said he would confer shortly with the penitentiary warden, Frank D. Whipp. It was for this purpose that a stay of mittimus was allowed until June 29.

A murder indictment returned against the boy will be dropped, prosecutors announced. George was tried and convicted only on the charge of kidnapping.

The sentence pronounced on young Rogalski was satisfactory to Mrs. Dora Witte, the grandmother from whose home little Dorette was lured to a death from exposure with the promise of "a nickel to buy some candy." George Zietlow, the victim's father, was not satisfied.

"They should have given him life," he said.

Almost devoid of natural emotions, young Rogalski's abnormal sex curiosity was blamed by psychiatrists for the crime. He showed little or no concern over what would happen to his infant victim when she was left unclothed in the ramshackle ice house, the testimony disclosed.

Baby's Body Found

In Station Shortly After One of Woman

LONDON, June 20.—Still gasping from the shock of finding the torso of a murdered woman in a Brighton railway station. Great Britain was given a new thrill of horror today when the body of a slain baby was found in a trunk in the luggage room of the same station.

The baby's age, police said, was somewhere between four months and one year.

The finding of the woman's body and that of the baby were immediately linked together in the minds of the public and the police. Police announced after a preliminary investigation, however, that there was no connection between the two crimes.

D.A.R. Chapter Holds Annual Luncheon Meet

The American Hotel Coffee shoppe was the scene of a delightful luncheon Tuesday noon at one o'clock when members and guests of the Pickaway Plains chapter of the American Revolution held their annual luncheon meeting.

A delicious three course luncheon was served to sixty five members and guests. The room was beautifully decorated in an array of summer flowers.

Following the luncheon hour, the members and guests enjoyed a program of music and an interesting talk on Ohio, with Harlow Lindley, curator of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical society, as the guest speaker.

Mr. Lindley's talk was most interesting and his manner of presenting the many historic facts about our State was most pleasing.

Mrs. Helen Black Anderson read a poem, "The Flag," written by the national D. A. R. president, Mrs. Russell W. Mazza.

The musical numbers consisted of two vocal solos by Mrs. Melvin Yates. She sang, "A Piper," by Head and "Love is the Wind," by MacFadden.

Two violin solos were played by Miss Helen Yates. They were "The Rose" by Nevin and "Song of Love" by Rhomburg.

The program was concluded with two numbers by a chorus comprised of D. A. R. members. It's selections were "Carry Me Along" by Foster Nevin and "A Brown Bird Singing" by Hayden Wood. Miss Alice Mills Clarke accompanied all the numbers.

The committee in charge of the lovely affair included Miss Marie Hamilton, Miss Edith Haswell, Miss Charlotte Phelps, Mrs. Harley Colwell, Miss Dorothy McArthur and Mrs. Bryce Briggs.

POLICE AGAIN QUIZ BIGAMIST

Poderjay and Foreign Wife Engage Lawyers; Woman In Nervous Condition.

VIENNA, June 20.—Police again today quizzed Ivan Poderjay and Marguerite Suzanne Ferrand, seeking to obtain information regarding the disappearance of Miss Agnes C. Tufverson, woman lawyer of New York, who vanished sixteen days after her marriage to Poderjay.

Poderjay, according to records in a London registry office, married Mme. Ferrand there in March, 1933, and married Miss Tufverson in December 1933 in New York.

Mme. Ferrand, who was wearing clothing said to have been part of Miss Tufverson's trousseau, is detained for questioning. A blood-stained trunk belonging to Miss Tufverson was found in the attic of the house where Poderjay and Mme. Ferrand lived here.

As was the case yesterday, when she became hysterical while being questioned, Mme. Ferrand was highly excited at today's inquiry. Poderjay was calm. The inquiry was in private and police did not reveal the nature of the answers to their questions.

Poderjay, often portrayed as a dapper Don Juan who wrecked many feminine hearts in many lands, was ungroomed and unshaven as he faced the police inquisitor. His erstwhile natty suit was wrinkled and his shoes were unlaced.

Both Poderjay and Mme. Ferrand engaged lawyers to defend them.

DERBY

Mr. and Mrs. Nichol Webb were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hill.

Mrs. Lucille Aeran and children visited Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Edwards Sunday. They are staying at the home of her father, Dr. Fitzgerald while the Dr. and his wife are on a trip to Montana.

Some sneak thief stole three tires from the automobile of Dr. Deyo Saturday night.

NAME WINNERS IN PROFITABLE PROVERB GAME

Miss Roberts, Mrs. Perkins Take First Money In Two Divisions.

Miss Nelle Roberts, R. F. D. 1, and Mrs. Irene Perkins, 663 E. Mound-st., are the winners of the first prize awards in the Profitable Proverb Contest conducted by The Herald. Miss Roberts was the winner of the $10 prize with a new subscriber and Mrs. Perkins the winner of $5 submitting answers without a new subscriber.

Many answers were received in the contest but only two were received with new subscribers and the second prize of $5 in that class was awarded to Mrs. George Grubb, 117 N. Seloto-st.

Other prize winners were Ethel Kern, R. F. D. 2, Circleville, $2.50, and $1 prizes were awarded to Mrs. Thelma Goldsberry, 522 S. Scioto-st., Mrs. Adrian R. Ater, E. F. D. 1, Charksburg; Martha Grubb, R. F. D. 3, Circleville; Mrs. Donald Hildebrand, R. F. D. 1, Circleville, and Elizabeth Willis, 412 S. Court-st.

While the proverbs were comparatively easy many different answers were received for some of the cartoons and much time was necessary to check the answers before awarding prizes. The Herald greatly appreciates the interest shown by its many readers. Checks have been mailed to the winners.
